LANKTRAD INTERNATIONAL

All products manufactured by Lanktrad International (Pvt) Ltd, are environment friendly. Only natural fibres -sisal, jute, coco and palmyrah - are used along with cotton, wooden knobs and wooden handles in the manufacturing process. Sisal and jute fibre body massage brushes are made on corrosion resistant stainless steel wire while the coco fibre and palmyrah fibre brushes are twisted on galvanised iron wires.

All products are made manually using very simple locally made machines thus providing employment for as many as possible.
