“ Development through Trade” Industrial Exhibition

March 29th to April 3rd at World Trade Centre’s Expo Center

A special exclusive International pavilion is being designed to project International companies, foreign governments, universities and educational institutions and trade associations.

We request you to promote participation from your country in this prestigious event since the hosting of Spring Meet 2003 in the country’s commercial capital reflects the growing awareness that India has emerged as one of the most favoured investment destination in Asia. The theme of the 2003 Spring Meet is “Development through Trade” and it is expected to act as a catalyst to promote India’s bilateral trade and economic relation with other countries.

The Spring Meet 2003 of the World Trade Association (WTCA) is billed as a mega conference in India having a tremendous potential to portray and project your country’s industrial achievements and opportunities in various key sectors like tourism, textile, information technology, software and other major export areas, investment opportunities and incentives offered by your government.

The 330 World Trade Centres from over 100 countries will be participating in the International conference at Mumbai.

Interested Corporate Houses, Universities SEZs or States / Provinces from your Country can actively participate in the Spring Expo 2003 in the International pavilion.

At this crucial juncture of globalization and India’s post liberalization and reforms era, we trust that you will exploit this opportunity of portraying your country and make this event a great success, as your participation will add value to this event.
