Our Big Picture

A Unique Heritage
Food Treasure,
From Sri Lanka
to the world.

Our Source Market

RaaLa Kithul is tapped and refined over several days by experienced kithul collectors in Neluwa, an idyllic village located close to the Sinharaja Forest Reserve, in Southern countryside of Sri Lanka.

The treacle sourced from the rainforest is organic in nature and captures the full essence of Sri Lankan goodness.

Caryota urens (Kithul)

- Caryota urens (Kithul), is one of the native sugar palms in Sri Lanka.
- Kithul treacle can be recommended for diets of diabetic patients as a superior substitute for white sugar.
- Kithul sap as a low GI which makes it a healthier alternative to regular sweeteners like maple syrup. It has a rich smoky flavor too!
- The treacle sourced from the rainforest is organic in nature and captures the full essence of Sri Lankan goodness.
