Dried FRUITS

"Our dehydrated fruits are naturally grown in Sri Lanka, harvested through partnerships with local village farmers. Cultivated with organic compost fertilizers, they retain all their natural nutrients."

"All our mangoes are carefully selected under the guidance of experienced farmers and are naturally grown in the upper central region of the island. Villagers harvest these mangoes using traditional plucking techniques, ensuring they remain undamaged."

Dried MANGOES

"Our dried bananas are sourced from the lush wet regions of the island, where they thrive in natural, fertile soil. Harvested during the monsoon season, these bananas retain their rich taste and nutritional value, delivering a wholesome, natural snack."

Dried BANANAS

"Our dried papaya is made from naturally grown papayas cultivated in Sri Lankan villages. We ensure no chemical fertilizers are used, preserving the soil's purity. Every bite retains the fruit's natural taste and nutritional goodness."

Dried PAPAYA

"Our dried pineapple is made from high-quality fruit grown in the dry regions of the island. We ensure consistent taste in every batch, with each pineapple carefully harvested by traditional Sri Lankan villagers using time-honored methods."

Dried PINEAPPLE

"Our Dehydrated Pineapple with Kithul Trickle combines the natural sweetness of pineapple harvested from local villages with the unique flavor of Kithul Trickle, a traditional Sri Lankan delicacy.
