Cinnamon/ Cinnamomum Zeylanicum

A close-up photograph of a wooden bowl filled with dried cloves. The cloves are dark brown, with some showing the characteristic four-lobed shape of the flower buds. The bowl is set against a background of more cloves, creating a rich, textured scene. The lighting is warm, highlighting the natural colors and textures of the spice.
