

South Asian Free Trade Area (SAFTA)

Overview

The Agreement on South Asian Free Trade Area (SAFTA) aims at further enhancing the programme of regional economic integration through promotion of preferential trade, which commenced with the establishment of SAPTA. All countries completed the respective Trade Liberalization Program (TLP) under the Phase I and II of SAFTA, i.e. brought down tariffs to a level between 0-5 percent on all products other than those in the respective Sensitive Lists. Sri Lanka has been accorded a Special treatment in Rules of Origin under SAFTA.

Discussions on further reduction of Sensitive Lists under Phase III of SAFTA, a proposal of Fast Tracking reduction of SAFTA Sensitive List (reducing peak tariff on all products to 0 - 5% by the year 2020, excluding a small number of about 100 tariff lines) and implementation related matters under SAFTA are ongoing.

Motivated by the commitment to strengthen intra-SAARC economic cooperation to maximise the realization of the region's potential for trade and development for the benefit of their people, in a spirit of mutual accommodation, with full respect for the principles of sovereign equality, independence and territorial integrity of all States;

Noting that the Agreement on SAARC Preferential Trading Arrangement (SAPTA) signed in Dhaka on the 11th of April 1993 provides for the adoption of various instruments of trade liberalization on a preferential basis;

Convinced that preferential trading arrangements among SAARC Member States will act as a stimulus to the strengthening of national and SAARC economic resilience, and the development of the national economies of the Contracting States by expanding investment and production opportunities, trade, and foreign exchange earnings as well as the development of economic and technological cooperation;

Aware that a number of regions are entering into such arrangements to enhance trade through the free movement of goods;

Recognizing that Least Developed Countries in the region need to be accorded special and differential treatment commensurate with their development needs; and

Recognizing that it is necessary to progress beyond a Preferential Trading Arrangement to move towards higher levels of trade and economic cooperation in the region by removing barriers to cross-border flow of goods;

Have agreed as follows:

Contracting States are encouraged to adopt reductions in equal annual installments. If actual tariff rates after the coming into force of the Agreement are below 20%, there shall be an annual reduction on a Margin of Preference basis of 10% on actual tariff rates for each of the two years.

- b) The tariff reduction by the Least Developed Contracting States from existing tariff rates will be to 30% within the time frame of 2 years from the date of coming into force of the Agreement.
