Overview

The Sydney International Boat Show is an annual boating and marine event organized by the Boating Industry Association (BIA). Hundreds of local and international exhibitors and tens of thousands of visitors from all over the world attend every year, making it the largest recreational marine event in the southern hemisphere.

Often referred to as the trade fair for the boating industry, it's become a key date in the diary for locals and tourists alike and is simply a must-attend event for all boat enthusiasts. Whether you're looking to get familiar with the latest developments in the industry, have a particular product you'd like to find more information about, or just want to browse the array of beautiful vessels, there's something for everyone to enjoy and marvel at.
