Overview

JUNWEX autumn exhibition forms and demonstrates the main trends in the development of jewelry fashion. This is a unique gathering of fashionable novelties, incredible discoveries and new names of the industry. At the same time, the exhibition is not only a space for creativity, design thought and skill, but also an important business platform. JUNWEX Moscow is a professional marketplace for jewelry manufacturing and trading companies in the field of jewelry technologies, equipment, packaging and software.

Among the participants of the exhibition, there are enterprises that are the core of the Russian jewelry market. These are brands that enjoy the well-deserved trust of buyers. Thousands of regular visitors of the exhibition represent the elite of the professional industry trading community of the Russian Jewelry Trade Club, the largest wholesalers from all regions of our country as well as from neighboring countries.
