Overview

The Ideal Home Show is the world's longest running exhibition. Both spring and Autumn Ideal Home Show will continue to add new attractions, personalities, and entertainment to the many high caliber features that are now an established part of Ireland's favourite exhibition for homeowners. Up to 50,000 homeowners attend Ireland's best-loved homes and lifestyle exhibition to find the widest choice and best value for their home improvement and extension projects and because the show is full of interesting, entertaining, and informative features and entertainment.
